Weapons Inspection

On August 21, 2020, at about 0950 hours, I arrived at the Hemet Police Department and met with Property Evidence Technician Aubrey Murphy. Property Evidence Technician Aubrey Murphy provided me with the following evidence,

Item	Qty	Description
#0022	01	Remington 870, 12 gauge less lethal Firearm serial number V512838V
#0024	01	Colt M4 Commando, 5.62x45mm caliber rifle Firearm serial number A0222611
#0029	01	Staccato P 2011, 9mm caliber semi-automatic handgun. Firearm serial number TX19993

I transported the above listed firearms to the Riverside County Sheriff's Department – Armory, where they were inspected by Corporal Brian Clark. After the inspection, Corporal B. Clark returned the firearms to me and I transported them back the Hemet Police Department, where I released them to Property Evidence Technician Aubrey Murphy.

COMMENTS

On, 08/21/2020, Riverside County District Attorney Senior Investigator II Felipe Villalobos (#214) delivered the above firearm and requested a detailed inspection of the above listed firearm at the request of the Riverside County District Attorney's Office Major Crimes – Homicide Unit.

I examined the exterior of the firearm and found no damage. I completed a function check of the weapon, and found it operated within factory specifications. The rifle is select fire (semi-auto and full-auto)

I disassembled the firearm and found all parts to be in good working order and without defects. I did not test fire the firearm as all above function checks indicate it was in good operating condition.
